Henry A. Barber, Jr.,
Retired General

WINTER PARK, Fla., April 30

(AP) — Brig. Gen. Henry A. Barber, Jr., 59, United States Army, retired, died at his home last night after a heart attack.

At the outbreak of World War II, Gen. Barber was chief of the Latin American and Alaskan Division of the War Department general staff. He was assistant commander of the 4th Division in the Normandy landings.

After the war he was chief of the United States Military Mission at Bogota, Columbia. He retired in 1949, but was recalled to active duty with the Central Intelligence Agency during the Korean War.

He was born in Fort Reno, Okla., attended St. Mark's School at Southborough, Mass., and was graduated from the United States Military Academy in 1917.
